2015 Missouri Bluebird Conference July 10-12th, 2015

The Watershed Center 2400 E. Valley Watermill Rd/ Springfield, MO 65803 Speakers and Field Trip leaders!

Jessica Blomenkamp Jessica is a third year Missouri State Biology major who established and monitors nest box trails at four different Elementary Schools in the Logan/Rogersville school district. She is a graduate of the GLADE* program and a grant from GLADE provided the means for her to initiate her nest box trail project at the schools. Jessica also organized an "Education Day" at each of the schools to teach the students about the nest boxes and cavity nesters. She is sure to be an inspiration to all of us!

*Learn more about the Greater Ozark Audubon's outstanding GLADE program at the Bluebird Conference!

Larry Dobson Larry is a lifelong resident of Cass County and a retired educator, having worked as a teacher, administrator and counselor nearly 42 years. He discovered the charm of bluebirds by watching them in the Ozarks and immediately began researching how he could attract them to his home area. Larry and his wife, Mary, live on 40+ acres near Raymore, MO. He monitors about 30 nest boxes and is a charter member of MOBS. Larry and Mary make many bluebird presentations to all kinds of organizations in western Missouri and love to travel looking for bluebirds in other locations of the US.

Steve & Regina Garr presenting: "Missouri's Bluebird Heritage" (presented during the Friday evening "Bluebird Banquet") Did You Know?....On May 9,1945 the "National Bluebird Trail" was formally dedicated in Springfield, Missouri. The effort began as a Junior Audubon Club project in Cape Girardeau in 1938 and grew to involve Garden Clubs in 23 states, coast to coast. By 1946 a total of 6,728 nest boxes had been erected! Find out more about how conservation-minded organizations worked together for the sake of our native cavity-nesters.

MOBS gratefully acknowledges the assistance of the greater Ozarks Audubon Society in putting together the 2015 Missouri Bluebird Conference. Check out their website at: www.greaterozarksaudubon.org

Greg Samuel has graciously volunteered to be a program presenter (Birds of the Ozarks) AND field trip leader!
